Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost October 10, 2020

Thank you so much for being here for this Outdoor Service!

We ask everyone to do the following:

Decide whether or not you wear a mask or face covering.
It is optional.

Please keep your distance from others (except for those in your household or those you feel comfortable sitting with).

For now, we ask that you do not shake hands, give hugs and other forms of physical touching before, during or after the service.

Please help make our services as safe as possible so we can continue to meet this way until the time comes when we get back into our sanctuary for worship.

For those who are in their vehicles, you can listen to the service on 92.9FM.

Eleanor Daley

Joining our voices all in God’s praises, the church rejoices in these new days; Thank for this hour, with all its challenge, thanks for God’s power with us always.

From every nation you call your people; in our salvation you make us one; Sister and brother joined in the Spirit, loving each other in the one Son.

Make us more giving, make us more open, fill us for living each day with love; Pour out your Spirit, strengthen our witness, till earth inherit heaven above.

WE BRING OUR TITHES AND OFFERINGS TO GOD

Offertory Prayer

ANTHEM – “THE SERVANT SONG” Richard Gilliard

Will you let me be your servant, let me be as Christ to you: pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant to.

We are pilgrims on a journey, we are travelers on the road, we are here to help each other, walk the mile and bear the load.

I will hold the Christ-light for you in the night-time of your fear; I will hold my hand out to you, speak the peace you long to hear.

I will weep when you are weeping, when you laugh I'll laugh with you. I will share your joy and sorrow 'till we've seen this journey through.

When we sing to God in heaven we shall find such harmony. Born of all we've known together of Christ's love and agony.

Will you let me be your servant . . .

MESSAGE – A HEART OF INTEGRITY Rev. Doug Rights

* HYMN – “BLESSED ARE THE PURE IN HEART”

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see their God. The secret of the Lord is theirs; their soul is Christ’s abode.

The Lord, who left the sky our life and peace to bring, To dwell in lowliness with us, our pattern and our king,

Lord, we your presence seek; we ask this blessing true: Give us a pure and lowly heart, a temple fit for you.

God’s Word for Us

Psalm 15:1-5

Lord, who may dwell in your sacred tent? Who may live on your holy mountain? The one whose walk is blameless, who does what is righteous, who speaks the truth from their heart; whose tongue utters no slander, who does no wrong to a neighbor, and casts no slur on others; who despises a vile person but honors those who fear the Lord; who keeps an oath even when it hurts, and does not change their mind; who lends money to the poor without interest; who does not accept a bribe against the innocent. Whoever does these things will never be shaken.

Matthew 5:1-12

Now when Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, and he began to teach them. He said: “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.
